Grand Knight's Message

Brothers and Friends of St. Anne's,

Lent is here. Make your Lenten season prayerful and try to make some small sacrifices. There are always plenty of people and things to pray for.

The St. Patrick's Dinner Dance will take place at St. Gregory's on March 11th. Tickets will be sold after the Masses on 5th. See the flyer in this issue.

Our 100th Anniversary Gala is fast approaching. Please get your Journal ads in and call Stan for tickets. See the flyer in this issue.

I want to thank Stan Gajewski for cleaning up the snow around the Council after our 1 ½ inch "snowstorm". Please pray the Rosary. Pray for world peace and that our elected officials do what is right in keeping our country safe and prosperous.

Please pray for Charlie Leidner PGK, Bob Stiles PGK, Ed McTigue, Bill Allen (Mr. Wonderful) and Dennis Wild.

Please pray for the souls and the families of our departed Brothers, especially Eva G. Schuler.

Charlie Vaicels – Grand Knight

Vivat Jesus!

New Raffle to Replace the Calendar Raffle!

The Centennial Anniversary Raffle

As you know, the printing of the calendars was a great expense for the Council. There will be no calendars in this raffle. The raffle will work exactly the same for 2023 as before. You will choose your 3-digit number. The winning number every day will be the 3-digit evening New York State lottery number. The prizes will remain the same. $20.00 to $100.00 depending on the day of the month. The St. Anne's Council member which you had bought your calendar from will contact you to confirm your previous number and your continued participation. Any questions about the new raffle, please contact:

John Kolb PGK at 347-426-7726.

With your help and continued participation St. Anne's Council will be able to continue the important charitable work of the Knights of Columbus.

All members are asked to purchase at least 3 numbers.
